DIERSCHKE REUNION HELD

Descendants of Joseph Franz Dierschke and the former Pauline Seidel commemorated the 100 year anniversary of the family settling in Moulton, Texas at a Reunion on Sunday, June 20 at the Moulton V.F.W. Hall with approximately 400 members present. Family members began the day by attending 10 a.m. Mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, followed by a tour of the church cemetery and the graves of the beloved ancestors.

In the Fall of 1876, Joseph and Pauline Dierschke and their children moved to Moulton from New Ulm, Texas. The family had settled in New Ulm some nine years earlier upon their arrival to America from Breaslau, Silesia in Prussia. The couple had ten children, four of which were born in Moulton. The couple's children were: Anna Marie (married August Elster), Mathilda Marie (married John J. Mueller), Joseph A. (married Emma Bruchmiller and Martha Lorke), Marie Thersa (married Joseph Pilzner), Martha Amelia died in childhood, Gustov H. (married Elizabeth Wilde). Paul A. (married Bernandine Maikaetter and Mary Wotipka Fishbeck), Elizabeth Clara (married William Wick), Frank J. (married Louisa Wick), and Johanna Hedwig (married Frank Wick). Many descendants were born to these families and most live in all part of Texas, with others scattered throughout the country.

that will soon be printed.

Name tags were furnished by the J. A. Dierschke family. Music was also provided throughout the afternoon. It was decided to hold another big reunion again in 5 yrs. in Moulton.

Family members attending came from all parts of Texas, including Hallettsville, Shiner, Moulton, Schulenburg, Moulton, Schulenburg, Yoakum, Victoria and Placedo.

Attending from Hallettsville were Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Dierschke and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Dierschke and Judy, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Wick, Marilyn and Cindy.

Approximately 110 families attended.

Traveling the farthest were Mrs. Winnie (Dierschke) Vincent of Franklin Grove, Illinois and Mrs. Hertha (Dierschke) Ripper of Vancouver, Washington. The oldest guest attending was Mrs. Mary (Mueller) Schraer 85, of San Angelo. Shenann Anders, 4-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Anders of Schulenburg, was the youngest member attending.

Descendants of the Frank E. Dierschke family were hosts for the reunion, with Johnnie Dierschke of Shiner and Gus Targac of Moulton in charge.

Rev. Robert Schmidt offered the blessing at the barbecue meal and expressed thanks for all the blessings received over the years. Pictures and Family Albums were on display while the family renewed acquaintances. Orders were taken by Mrs. Julius Matula of Victoria and Mrs. Julius Bluhm of Chapman Ranch; for a family book.
